Youth exchange in Rustavi, Georgia
8-18th of January 2024

28 YOUNG PEOPLE!
5 countries!

Say NO to Gender Bias!

With the use of comics and storytelling as the primary methods for the project, we aim to address several key objectives and challenges, including promoting inclusiveness and self-expression, addressing societal attitudes towards gender roles and discrimination, exploring the impact of sexist language in daily life, and promoting equality through education and activism.

10 day youth exchange program: workshops, field independent work, theoretical outputs, practice, public event and lots of informal gatherings.

A diversity of voices brings balance

When we broaden our perspectives, our world expands. This is why it's high time that we throw any gender bias out the window. We've had enough of limits, it's time to break free.

Young artists, illustrators, storytellers, activists!

People who are eager to contribute to more equal future through artistic methods and creativity!

Venue and packing list the activity will take place in Rustavi, Georgia at International Scout Center Rustavi.

Participants will be accommodated in rooms of 2 and 3. Most of the sessions and days will be spent at the venue and the centre will provide food, bedding and informal space for free time.

the program will include few study visits to different organisations working on similar topics, where the transportation and lunch boxes will be provided for each participant.

as long as the “homework” and preparation goes, participants are expected to bring any traditional or personal favourite snack and sweets for the international coffee breaks.

The weather in Georgia in December can be quite cold and unpredictable, so be sure to bring warm jackets, hats and gloves with you. Participants are expected to arrive no later than 8th of January and Depart no earlier than 18th of January 2024.

for the projects smooth and effective implementation we also ask you to bring Laptops, Tablets and drawing pads, whichever you prefer for creating the documents, illustrations and drawing digitally.

PLEASE! Agree your travel plan, extra days to stay in Georgia and any other exeptions with the contact person of the project. Save all the receipts, tickets, invoices and boarding passes in order to get the reimbursement for your traveling costs.
